

Ubisoft® Changes Release Date of Tom Clancy's Rainbow Six Siege® to December 1

Closed Beta Begins September 24

PARIS — August 18, 2015 — Today, Ubisoft® announced that Tom Clancy's Rainbow Six® Siege will be released on December 1 for the Xbox One, PlayStation®4 computer entertainment system and Windows PC. The development team is using the additional time to make adjustments and improvements based on feedback received, to allow for additional testing during the upcoming Closed Beta and to deliver on the Rainbow Six brand's promise of quality.

"From the start, player feedback has been integral to the development process of Tom Clancy's Rainbow Six Siege. We've used it to constantly refine the players' experience of the game," said Xavier Marquis, Creative Director at Ubisoft. "After the Closed Alpha, the hands-on demos and the playtests we've held around the world, we saw that there were a few areas we wanted to hone in on to ensure we meet the high expectations players have for this game and for the Rainbow Six brand."

The Closed Beta for Rainbow Six Siege remains scheduled for September 24. Players can register at <http://rainbow6.ubi.com/siege>.

Ubisoft also confirmed its full year financial targets are unchanged.
